

The Word of God

Series: Grace for Every Day

Scripture: 2 Peter 1:12-21

Overview

It's good to be _____.

Therefore I intend always to remind you of these qualities, though you know them and are established in the truth that you have. 2 Peter 1:12

It's good to be _____.

*I think it right as long as I am in this body, to stir you up by way of reminder.
2 Peter 1:13*

When staring death in the face, things are _____.

. . . since I know that the putting off of my body will be soon, as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. 2 Peter 1:14

He was _____ them for the days ahead without him.

And I will make every effort so that after my departure you may be able at any time to recall these things. 2 Peter 1:15

These were not myths, as they were _____.

For we do not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 2 Peter 1:16

Peter reflects on the _____.

For when he received honor and glory from God the Father, and the voice was borne to him by the Majestic Glory, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased,' we ourselves heard this very voice borne from heaven, for we were with him on the holy mountain. 2 Peter 1:17-18

We have the _____ of God.

And we have the prophetic word more fully confirmed, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. 2 Peter 1:19

How we got the word of God: The _____ of Scripture

*Knowing this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone's own interpretation. For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.
2 Peter 1:20-21*
